Hague, January 18.

WE can say nothing certain yet of the Squadron which the States will send into the Baltick, by reason of the Difficulties that some of the Provinces continue to make in giving their Consent to it; and that others represent, there is no Reason for sending a stronger Force thither than was sent two Years ago, which was then found sufficient to protect the Trade of the States Subjects. It is said, that the Declaration made here to the Marquis de Beretti Landi, Ambassadour Extraordinary of the King of Spain, upon the Subject of his Memorial presented the 21st of September last, has not made the Impression at the Court of Spain that was expected; and that M. de Ripperda has received Permission to take his Leave of that Court. Prince Kurakin having signified to their High Mightinesses, that by Reason of an Indisposition he could not come to the Treves Chamber, to communicate the Proposals he had to make, the President of the Week went to his House to receive it there; but 'tis believed that this pretended Indisposition was but a Feint, which he made use of to put himself upon the same Foot with the Ambassadors of France and Spain, who cause the States Deputies to come to them, when they have any Affairs to propound. The Resident of the States at Brussels, M. Pesters is ordered to insist upon it, that the Marquis de Prié will at last be pleas'd to introduce and regulate the Redemption of the Species, and the Farming the Customs, as the infallible Means of improving the Revenues of the Austrian Netherlands, which he himself agreed to when he believ'd the States would accept Assignments upon those Funds. The said Resident is further charged to represent, that for determining the States to take a final Resolution upon the Point of the Subsidy, and to facilitate the Adjustment of the other Points undecided, it will be necessary that the Marquis de Prié give a distinct and clear Answer in Writing to the Memorials that have been presented to him on the Part of the States, which he has hitherto declined; that so the States may know positively what is the Sentiment of his Imperial Majesty upon the Execution of the Barrier Treaty, in Order to put a good End to it; which Demand is the more just, in that their High Mightinesses have done their Part in that Treaty, and that it is not they, but his Imperial Majesty, who desires to make Alterations in it, and has been the Cause that it has not been hitherto executed. The same thing has been recommended to the Imperial Minister here, for him to assist it with his good Offices at the Court of Vienna, where the States Minister is also to make all possible Instances for the same purpose. The Prussian Minister at Brussels, having insisted by Writing and by Word of Mouth, to be admitted to the Conferences that are held there, among other things upon the Subject of the known Points in the Acts of Protection which the King his Master has caus'd to be deliver'd against the Barrier Treaty, particularly when the Debates turn upon the Duties of Exportation and Importation along the Maes; the Marquis de Prié has made Reflexions upon the Quality of that Resident, (altho' he acknowledg'd him as such when the Maritime Powers had the Administration of the Netherlands) pretending that, being born a Subject of his Imperial Majesty in Brabant, he ought not to engage himself without his special Permission, in the Service of any other Prince. As this Incident may end the Conferences, the States cause the Marquis de Prié to be earnestly desired, that he will remit that Affair hither, where their Imperial and Prussian Majesties have each their Ministers; and M. Minderhaegen has been required to inform his Master of it as soon as possible, that this Obstacle may be one Way or other remov'd, and the Accommodation of Affairs not put a Stop to on that Account.

London, January 15.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Jan. 22.

Vienna, Jan. 5. Letters from Belgrade of the 27th of last Month mention, that the Divan, or great Turkish Council, was to be held the 8th or 9th Instant, and then it would be heard what Resolution the Ottomans would take, and what Answer they would give to the Letter of Prince Eugene of Savoy, dated the 18th past. 'Tis very much doubted, in the mean time, at Belgrade, and we are as dubious here also, that it will hardly be explicate and clear, and still more, that it will in Reality tend to Peace; because 'tis known that the Turks promise themselves great things from the powerful Diversions which the Court of Madrid and its Adherents make them believe they will make in Italy, which as they insinuate, will hinder the Emperour from bringing any considerable Force into the Field against them; and a certain Christian Ambassadour at Constantinople writes in this Strain. Wherefore 'tis supposed the Turks will carry on the Treaty but dilatorily, till they see the Issues of the next Campaign; and that in the mean time, they will exert their utmost Power to bring the Emperour under. But we have Reason to hope that the Turks will be disappointed, and that the Emperour's Army will be as numerous by the Month of May, and as well provided with all things as they were last Year. Those who have contracted for providing Horses, acquit themselves so well, that they deliver 3 or 400 every Week, which are immediately sent forward and distributed among the Regiments. And the Jew Oppenheimer, who is the Contractor for Forage for filling the Magazines, has provided so good a Quantity, that the Army will effectually be supplied all the Summer. And in short, such Care is taken, that the Court compute the Army will be earlier in the Field than the Turks can possibly be.

From the Hague Courant, dated Jan. 21.

Hamburg, Jan. 14. We hear from Petersburg, that the Czar of Muscovy is gone from thence to Moscow, without having admitted the Danish and Polish Ministers to an Audience, as they had desir'd. We have Letters from good Hands at London, which say, the King of Sweden had imparted to the Senators and Principal Generals, who had been sent for to that purpose, the Proposals for Peace which Baron Gortz had brought, in order to have their Opinions thereupon. And that they had declar'd, that a Treaty with the Czar upon such a Plan, was too prejudicial to the King; and on the contrary, that they represented it was more for his Majesty's Advantage to make a Peace with the King of Great Britain as Elector of Hanover, and the King of Denmark; by which Means they thought the King of Sweden might recover his Territories, or at least a good part of them. The same Letters add, that Baron Gortz having seen that the rest of the Ministers were of that Opinion, to please them and the King, had himself also concurr'd in it.

From the Amst. Courant, dated Jan. 22.
